Good afternoon Mr. Arata.

The Defendants agree to a two-week extension for Plaintiff's response to the Motion to Dismiss, making the new deadline November 2, 2022. At this time, the Defendants do not agree to a stay.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you would like to discuss this further.

Best regards,
Carrie

WARNING - This email originated from outside the State of Nevada. Exercise caution when opening attachments or clicking links, especially from unknown senders.

Ms. Parker and Ms. Vandenberg:

Following up on my earlier voicemails, I am assisting Jenny Foley in representing Courtney Lee in her claims against the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, Nevada federal district court case no. 2:22-cv-00363-GMN-BNW.

As you are aware, Ms. Lee is due to file her opposition to the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Amended Complaint by tomorrow, October 19, 2022.

Given that our client has requested, but not yet received, a Notice of Right to Sue ("NRTS") from the EEOC regarding either of her pending charges, would the Defendants agree to stay the case pending receipt of the NRTS? In the alternative, would your clients agree to a two-week extension to respond to the Motion to Dismiss, i.e., the response would be due November 2, 2022?

Please let me know if you would like to discuss this further, (702) 674-9270.

Thank you for your consideration,

Mike Arata
